

CB Administrator - Supervisor Ethics

CB

An administrator's/supervisor's professional behavior must conform to an ethical code. The administrator/supervisor acknowledges service centers belong to the public and they must provide educational opportunities to all. An administrator's/supervisor's actions will be viewed and appraised by the community, professional associates, and students. Therefore, the administrator/supervisor subscribes to the following standards:

The administrator/supervisor:

- Makes the well-being of students/staff/learning centers the basis for decision making and action;
- Fulfills professional responsibilities with honesty and integrity;
- Supports the principle of due process as required by law;
- Obeys local, state and national laws;
- Implements all board policies, rules and regulations;
- Pursues appropriate measures to correct those laws, policies and regulations that are not consistent with sound educational goals;
- Avoids using an administrative/supervisory position for personal gain;
- Accepts academic degrees or professional certificates only from duly accredited institutions;
- Seeks to improve the profession through research and continuing professional development; and
- Honors employment contracts until fulfillment or release.
