

Employees may request to be excused from regular duty by the board to serve as paid or unpaid consultants to other service centers, government agencies or private industry. If the employee takes paid leave to perform consulting services, any fee and/or honorarium paid to the employee shall be returned to the service center.

Approved: SCKESC Board of Directors 12/03/2008

COPY