

KA Goals and Objectives

KA

The goal of educational public relations is to facilitate a process of communication between the service center and its internal and external publics. The public relations program is intended to develop better public understanding of the service center's goals, objectives, accomplishments, and needs.

The community shall be informed about service center functions and activities.

Approved: SCKESC Board of Directors 1/07/2009

COPY